Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, William H. Hornberg has spent a significant portion of his career in the water pollution control field; and,

WHEREAS, After receiving his engineering degree from the University of Cincinnati in 1943 and serving two years and nine months in the United States Army, Harvey started a career with a private engineering consulting firm; and,

WHEREAS, Harvey has worked for the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and, more specifically, the Municipal Facilities Branch, since the agency's inception in 1971; and,

WHEREAS, Harvey was instrumental in working with the State of South Dakota to get the state's Construction Grants Program approved; and,

WHEREAS, It was through his dedicated efforts that the state has received $112,000,000 in EPA Construction Grant funds for water pollution control from 1972 to present; and,

WHEREAS, After 17 years of dedicated service to the state and having reached the age of 69, Harvey is retiring from employment with the U.S. EPA on July 1, 1988; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of Harvey's service to the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby extend my sincere gratitude and appreciation to William H. Hornberg for his service to the State of South Dakota in the field of water pollution control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
